CLASSES

Class Memoirs

"Knowledge Is The Key To Success"—Class Motto

FIRST DOOR

As the key opened the door to our freshman year, we found our high school administration had been changed. Dr. Stabler took over the duties of Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Glass became the principal of the high school for Dr. Shaffer, who was on a leave of absence. In this year we found new teachers and learned how to change classes without being late? Shakespeare's words, "Friends, Romans, Countrymen, lend me your ears," was the cause of burning midnight oil. Swimming was revived as a scholastic sport after twelve years. But because we were all so bright, we managed to get through our freshman year.

SECOND DOOR

As we passed through the second door of our high school education, Mr. Carricato became the new biology instructor, and seventh and eighth graders were now in the high school. The numbering system of the rooms was changed, which added to the confusion. A new name was given to the high school, Vandergrift Jr.-Sr. High School. Now that we were progressing in high school we were able to join clubs. During our sophomore year, golf became a new sport at V. H. S.

THIRD DOOR

When we entered through the third door, we were happy to know that we were now—Upperclassmen! Although the basketball team only won one game, the baseball team was stopped only by Andy Volek. The leaders of our "mob" were: Frank Mondi as president to serve, Ted Tarosky as vice president to help, Judie Carnahan as secretary to keep notes, Linda DeVinney as treasurer our money to save, Edmond Bickel as historian our history to write, Our class flower was the iris, and the class colors were lavender and white.

FOURTH DOOR

At last we made it through the final door that leads to our chosen careers. Throughout our senior year we lived many happy moments. There was the Senior Prom, Commencement, and many sports activities. The class elected a new president, Frank Ignaczak, as a symbol to follow. The others who were chosen were Bob Smith for vice president, Judie Carnahan chosen again as secretary, and Clarence Russell for treasurer. As we look back we can recall these things best. But to find what is in store for this class of 150 students, we must call upon God to find the answer.

RONALD ZAHRNDT

Born: April 18, 1940
Died: May 9, 1955

In Memoriam

Contentedly quiet
He walked these halls;
Brave and befriended
Stood he, straight and tall,
A religious young scout,
Courageous and kind,
Concern for all others
Domineering his mind.
Loyal forever,
Obsessed in his strife,
Bearing the cross
Of the right way in life.
So wind your way up
To the gate gold and sunny,
We wish you great peace
And God keep you, Ronnie.

Friends -

To a girl in all my classes who, I hope, will be in my classes
next year. Good Luck in everything you do.

Linda

Dear Francie;
When youare washing dishes
As sad as you can be
Just squeeze that little ol' dish rag
And pretend you're squeezing me.
your pal,
Janet
